B1/B2 Visa

B1/B2 Visa ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Mar 7th 2019

Applicant sought out our firm after receiving a misrepresentation finding against him at the consulate for visa stamping. We reviewed his file and were unable to ascertain any factual basis for the fraud/misrepresentation finding. We began directly corresponding with the consulate, and requested information from various government agencies. In addition, we consulted with The Office of Visa Services (Visa Office) within the Department of State's Bureau of Consular Affairs. After about ten months and numerous letters to the consulate, our client's fraud/misrepresentation finding was removed.
