Update to Filing Location for Form I-918 and Form I-485 for Applicants Filing Based on U Nonimmigrant Status

Update to Filing Location for Form I-918 and Form I-485 for Applicants Filing Based on U Nonimmigrant Status ^[1]

Submitted by Chief Editor on Jun 29th 2020

Starting June 29, 2020, petitioners residing in certain states must file the following forms at the Nebraska Service Center, instead of the Vermont Service Center:

- Form I-918, Petition for U Nonimmigrant Status ^[2];
- Form I-918, Supplement A, Petition for a Qualifying Family Member of a U Nonimmigrant; and
- Form I-918, Supplement B, U Nonimmigrant Status Certification.

Petitioners should determine which service center they should send these and related forms (such as Form I-192 and Form I-765) based on their state of residence. Please refer to the ?Where to File? section on the Form I-918 webpage ^[2] to determine the correct filing location.

USCIS is also updating the direct filing addresses for Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status ^[3], for applicants who apply on the basis of their U nonimmigrant status. Please refer to the Direct Filing Addresses for Form I-485, Application to Register Permanent Residence or Adjust Status ^[4], webpage to see which center you should send your application to.

USCIS will allow a 30-day grace period for petitioners to file Form I-918, Form I-918A, Form I-918B, Form I-485 and all related forms at the incorrect service center. The grace period will run through July 30. After that date, USCIS may reject any Form I-918 or related forms sent to the incorrect service center.
